Participation in Graduation Ceremonies

2017 Winter Graduation
Thursday, December 21, 2017

The Winter Graduation ceremony is open to all Fall 2017 graduation applicants who expect to complete all degree requirements in the Fall semester. Summer 2017 doctoral graduates are invited to participate as well as Summer 2017 bachelor's and master's graduates who did not participate in the previous May Commencement.

For detailed information regarding the university's graduation ceremonies, please visit the Office of Events Management's website at events.gmu.edu.

George Mason University provides official degree and enrollment verifications electronically as secure PDF documents produced by the National Student Clearinghouse as Authorized Certifying Agent for the university. The verification bearing the watermark seal of the National Student Clearinghouse is valid without signature or university seal and does not require printing on security paper.
