

Submitting a Late Graduation Application Students

This form is required after the graduation application deadline has passed and is no longer available in Patriotweb. This applies to degree-seeking undergraduate and graduate students. The form will be routed to their Advisor (or Dean if no one is assigned) for their program and minor (if applicable). If the student has more than one degree program, they must submit a new form for each program. Once the form has been reviewed, it will be sent to the Office of University Registrar Degree Compliance team for final review and processing for degree conferral.

1. Graduation Term

Select the term you will be completing your degree requirements. The form will only show the current term open for late graduation application. See the Graduation Timelines page for more information.
