TIME CONFLICT

The Office of the University Registrar does not typically permit students to register for courses that are scheduled to meet at concurrent times or that overlap in meeting times. Both instructors must approve this request.

In order to register for a course that results in a time conflict of 15 minutes or less, follow the instructions below. Time conflicts of more than 15 minutes may be approved with special permission or during the Summer term.

Complete all information on the form and obtain signatures from both instructors.

Submit the completed form to the Office of the University Registrar located in Student Union Building I, Room 2101 by the last day to add for the semester.
